OLD PAPERS.

Good conditioned old papers for sale at this office at only 40 cents per hundred.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Thieves entered the room of Mr. Ellis, one of the Circle House boarders, night before last and secured a gold watch.

Patrolman Hine arrested Josiah Monlon yesterday afternoon for engaging in a gift enterprise. He was selling lottery tickets on Court street.

Dora Carter has instituted peace surety proceedings against Tessie Hogarty. The Hogarty girl will be tried before Squire Fieberman to-morrow.

The Supreme Court yesterday affirmed the case of Thomas Fakes vs. Mary Elliott, sent up from the Howard Circuit.

Hon. John W. Kern has accepted an invitation to deliver a Fourth of July oration at Indianapolis, Iowa, where he lived when a boy.

Laura Hutchins, who recently disappeared from her home in Muncie, has been found in this city. She is described as a beautiful blonde, eighteen years of age.

Porter Overton and George Dabois have been brought here, the former from Montgomery and the latter from Hendricks County, pending trial in the Federal Court.

The case of John Kirsh for selling liquor on Sunday, which was taken to Squire Smock's Court from the Mayor on a change of venue, will come up for trial to-day.

William and Ed Strobel, the two cow-boys who besieged a saloon on Madison avenue Tuesday night, were yesterday fined $12 and sent to jail for twenty days by the Mayor.

The police authorities of Mattoon telegraphed here yesterday that they were in possession of the horse and buggy which was stolen from Thomas Redding one day last week.

Marion Lodge No. 1, K. of P., conferred the third rank on two candidates, the Independent Council assisting and Grand Instructor Heiskell officiating. P. G. O. A. N. Grant, of Kokomo, was one of the visitors at No. 1.

In the suit of "Dock" Wilson vs. Ernest Knodel, for $200 damages, for refusing to allow him to play in his saloon on account of his color, the jury in Judge's Court gave a verdict of $5 damages. The case will be appealed.

In the suit of Sarah Burns vs. John Gale, for $200 damages for selling liquor to her son, thus causing him to destroy her furniture and whip her until she was sick, the jury in Squire Smock's Court yesterday found for the defense.

The Young Ladies' Home Missionary Society of the Central Avenue Church will give a strawberry and ice cream festival at the church Friday evening. Music and recitations are on the programme. Admission free. Everybody invited.

The Mutual Saving and Loan Association of this city has been incorporated, with a capital stock of $100,000. The Board of Directors are J. T. Layman, Otto Steedman, A. Bushman, Albert Seaburn, W. P. Junglaun, Louis Meier, W. Vandernar, H. Hagedorn and Frank Erdelmeier.

A Quartette of Counterfeiters.

Levi Halliwell, Lemuel Goodwin, Rhoda McRae and Annie McBride, the quartette arrested at Edwardport for passing counterfeit money at Washington, Davies County, some time ago, were put on trial in the Federal Court yesterday. The men swore that they got the money from the women, and didn't know it was counterfeit, and the women made a similar statement with regard to the men, each side trying to pose as injured innocence and to lay the blame on the other.

Thankful Sisters

The Sisters of Charity of St. Vincent's Infirmary beg to return sincere and heartfelt thanks to all in general and each one in particular for the assistance received toward rendering the fair that terminated so auspiciously a grand success. They pray the God of Charity to bless the workers and donors.

G. A. R.

For Decoration Day I would inform the members of the G. A. R. that I have a full line of Regulation Hats, Caps, Cords and Wreaths of all qualities.

J. & C. FISCHER

UPRIGHT AND SQUARE PIANOS.

The pronounced preference of over SIXTY THOUSAND purchasers, and the emphatic endorsement of the artists, justifies us in saying they are without an equal among medium-priced Pianos. They meet the wants of those desiring a thoroughly reliable Piano, with good tone, good action, and the greatest durability. They will, in fact, be found in many respects superior to some Pianos for which the highest rank is claimed.
